

Duration 1 day

Course Description

This course concentrates on raising delegates' awareness of equal opportunities issues that are becoming increasingly important in the workplace.

This course is designed for anyone who has managerial responsibility or who provides a service to clients.

The Aim

To promote understanding of and discussion on the issues.

Objectives

By the end of the course, delegates will be able to:

- Define equal opportunities
- Describe the differences between prejudice, stereotyping and discrimination
- Identify their legal obligations
- Apply good practice in the workplace

Subject Areas

- Definitions
- Prejudice, stereotyping and discrimination
- The law
- Good practice
- Positive action